Who should attend?

- Anyone Who Wants to Accelerate Their Learning Potential
- Trainers, Human Resource Management & Business Professionals
- Educational Leaders, Staff Developers & Teachers
- Students & Home School Parents
- Health Specialists

We Offer Three Levels of Training to Fit Your Needs

Beginning Level: Module I

- Accelerating your Learning

Intermediate Level: Module II

- Uncovering the Dynamics of The Learning Process

Mastery Level: Module III

- Becoming the Facilitator

Certification

After each level is completed the participant is presented with a certification of completion from the Learning Revolution International.

Module I: Beginning Level Accelerating your Learning

Make the discoveries of brain research applicable to your life and gain the meta-skills to help learners integrate and synthesize new learning into their personal and professional lives. In this workshop, you will also gain the skills to: achieve higher standards for you and your learners, manage stress, learn to learn and think in an optimal way, boost self-esteem, and change behavior to maximize full potential. Learn at least 100 strategies to accelerate your learning, teaching, and “selling” to the brain.

Duration: 2 four-day workshops (recommended to be taken in sequence)

Workshop 1: Accelerated Integrative Learning

Workshop 2: Creating the Optimal Environment for Learning

Optional Credit: 1 unit for each workshop completed

Prerequisite: Workshop 1 and 2 to be taken in sequence

Module II: Intermediate Level UNCOVERING THE DYNAMICS OF THE LEARNING PROCESS

“Go behind the scenes” of accelerated learning in this unique course. The outcomes in Module II are different even though some of the same course material as Module I is covered in this workshop. Both levels are being taught simultaneously. The main role of participants is to be observers of the non-direct and unconscious communication of the class. Module II participants delve into personal development, non-verbal body language, group dynamics, and releasing barriers to accelerate learning. Includes an extra 2 hours instruction per day of class time.

Duration: The same 2 four-day workshops as Module 1, but an additional 90 minutes of debriefing with the facilitator on the behind the scenes techniques

Optional Credit: Arranged by request with additional fee

Module III: Mastery Level Becoming the Facilitator

Of all the Four-Day Learning Revolution In Action Workshops, Module III offers the most personalized coaching by Dr. Vos. It is especially geared towards those of you wanting to improve your teaching and training delivery. You will be given tips on how to create dynamic presentations for any audience by linking your acquired accelerated learning skills with new techniques in subliminal dynamics. Opportunity to begin guided curriculum construction is also available.

Duration: Personal Coaching with your own Learning Revolution workshops (8 days) or co-teaching with Dr. Vos

Prerequisites: Modules I and II.

Additionally, a letter must be submitted to Dr. Vos at vos@learning-revolution.com explaining your background and purpose for taking Module III.

* Registration is by request only. If interested, contact: vos@learning-revolution.com

Refund Policy and Guarantee

We want you to be satisfied with the workshops. If you decide to cancel your enrollment 30 days prior to the workshop, the full amount of tuition per workshop is refundable. If you decide to cancel your enrollment less than 30 days prior to the workshop, the tuition is refundable and a cancellation fee of $100 per workshop will be applied. Remember, transfers and substitutions for another time period may be made at any time. If, for any reason, you are unsatisfied with the training at the end of the first day, please let us know and we will gladly refund the full amount of your course fee, less the cancellation fee.
